Drama Camp

July 12-16, 2010
Lakeside Theater
Rangeley, ME

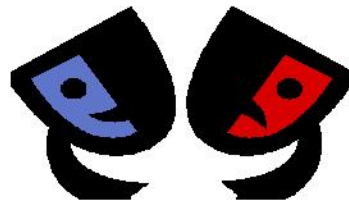

BA in Directing from Bennington College and Acting from Royal Academy of Dramatic Arts, London, UK

HALEY MURPHY has been directing, choreographing and teaching theatre for over twenty years, working with all ages from pre-school to adult.

In addition to her award-winning directing and educational work with local theatres and elementary schools in the Washington, DC area, Haley is currently the Director of the Dodgeball Theatre which is the home of the Teen Ensemble.

The morning will include drama activity and skill development, with lots of games and creative activities. Some of the areas of acting will focus on: PANTOMIME, STORY TELLING, CREATING CHARACTERS, ENVIRONMENTS, EMOTIONS, IMPROVISATIONS, CREATIVE MOVEMENT, and SCENE BUILDING.

The afternoon time slot will focus on production work. This time will be used primarily on rehearsing the musical version of "America's Tallest Tales" which will be shared at the end of the week.
